

STEP 1: ADOPT A PLANNING STRUCTURE

Involvement of and support from the community hospital and public health agency administrators, other agency heads, top political leaders, and key policy makers in a community (e.g., county or multi-county area) significantly improves and strengthens the local planning process. Effective leadership is necessary to inspire a shared vision and enlist appropriate partners and staff in the development process. Once leaders' commitments and buy-in are secured, planning structures, resources, and other essential elements often fall into place more easily. The suggestions and tools can help you build a strong foundation for planning. Implementation will, of course, depend on the unique characteristics of your community. Examples of planning tools include, but are not limited to the following:

TIPS

#1: Don't pass GO before gaining leadership support.

Enlisted leaders can:

- Influence public opinion;
- Mobilize support and engage partners;
- Inspire action to get things done;
- Facilitate locating, obtaining, and allotting resources;
- Guide decision making;
- Advocate for the plan's goals and objectives; and
- Set policy and ensure that objectives are monitored and considered in policy matters.

#2: Begin within your own agency:

- Engagement of executive leadership
- Senior staff and program managers

#3: Include local and county elected officials and boards of health:

- Advisory committees
- Political and policy leaders
- Key health supporters, as well as potential adversaries

#4: Enlist heads of other agencies and health providers:

Primary care, oral health, mental health, substance abuse, environmental, social services, children and families, food and nutrition assistance, aging, disabilities, education, agriculture, transportation, and other agencies.

#5: Know the playing field:

- Conduct a SWOT (strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats) analysis;
- Learn from past successes and mistakes; and
- Define how the community plan can support and advance leaders' current policies and priorities;
- Know how your community plan activities will align with other planning and improvement efforts.

#6: Be explicit about what you are requesting from others:

- Identify shared values and common goals;
- Identify specific roles and responsibilities;
- Share responsibilities and decision making; and
- Establish accountability mechanism

STEP 1: ADOPT A PLANNING STRUCTURE

Action Checklist:

- ☐ Secure commitment from senior staff.
- ☐ Identify potential barriers and facilitators to success.
- ☐ Form a preparation team to identify goals and guide early stages of development.
- ☐ Present the plan development process to political leaders for support.
- ☐ Create a planning structure.
- ☐ Examine the policy/political environment.
- ☐ Identify related initiatives to integrate or consider coordination with any other plans.
- ☐ Engage partners early and maintain their involvement.
- ☐ Define functions and composition of an advisory and/or steering group.
